

Maude Barlow comes to Perth!

Mark your calendars - 24 September 2008, 7pm PDCI Auditorium!

As part of our on-going series “Perspectives on Water”, the Friends of the Tay Watershed are hosting a third event featuring Maude Barlow.

Maude Barlow is the National Chairperson of The Council of Canadians, Canada's largest public advocacy organization, and the co-founder of the Blue Planet Project, working internationally for the right to water. She serves on the boards of the International Forum on Globalization and Food and Water Watch, as well as being a Councillor with the Hamburg-based World Future Council. Maude is the recipient of six honorary doctorates, the 2005/2006 Lannan Cultural Freedom Fellowship Award, and the 2005 Right Livelihood Award (known as the “Alternative Nobel”) for her global water justice work. She is also the best-selling author or co-author of sixteen books, including Blue Gold: The Fight to Stop Corporate Theft of the World's Water and the recently released Blue Covenant: The Global Water Crisis and the Coming Battle for the Right to Water.

Wednesday, 24 September 2008, at 7pm

Perth and District Collegiate Institute Auditorium, 13 Victoria Street, Perth.

Copies of Maude's latest book “The Blue Covenant” will be on hand for purchase and signing.

Free to Friends of the Tay Watershed members & students -Otherwise $5 (memberships available at the door ($10))

For more information visit: www.tayriver.org